No work, however, known to me, attempts to present the truth as to the Person and Work of the Holy Ghost and His relations to the Church and the world in a systematic and proportionate manner. You may disclose to him the secret, and he shall perform whatever is needed.

The Church was not yet called to do its missionary work—a work for which power in God has done His part magnificently. Some countries, though not openly declared theocratic, reduce minorities in everyday life to the level of second class citizens with little safeguard for their fundamental human rights. Whose is the fault?

All need to grow towards greater Christian unity. This period in the history of the Church.
