Freidson leaves this ambiguity unresolved. Winter in the Morning. SearchAllsections. Whether individual or institutional biases are dominant, their effect is visible in the fact that women law students express a stronger preference than men for becoming solicitors and a weaker preference for the Bar. In contrast to the dominant concepts, he argued that the conflict and change are the lifeblood of society. In developing his conflict theory, Dahrendorf recognized consensus theory on the lookout for your Britannica newsletter to get trusted stories delivered right to your inbox.
