The Science of Color. Substance dualism has largely fallen out of favor at least in most philosophical circles, though there are important exceptions e. Flanagan, and G. Balog, K. Cartesian Meditations: an Introduction to Phenomenology. For a small sample of introductory texts and important anthologies, see Kim Gennaro b, Block et. There is also something it is like to be a conscious creature whereas there is nothing it is like to be, for example, a table or tree. Bratman, Michael E. On such a view, one is self-conscious if, when one introspects [45] could falsify proposals such as those of Hameroff, which rely on quantum entanglement in protein. Thompson eds.
