Another of Dennis Potter's "visitation dramas": Adultery by John disturbs Janet, so she flirts with the simple, mistreated Billy during the middle of giving him a reading lesson. I think I was 10 or maybe 11 when I had to rake The Cream In My Coffee leaves for the first time on account of my family moving into a house with an actual lawn and actual trees we actually had to maintain ourselves instead of the condo association hiring a landscaping company to do all of that stuff.
