Nisha June 22, at AM. Rhyming books are so good for the brain – they stick in our heads and create lifetime memories – they do for the 21st century child what poetry did for those gone before, make a connection to the fabulousness of the language and the glory of the spoken word. Or stop over on my Facebook page and share them there! Thanks,Sandi!Not at all–he stays on that egg no matter how many animals tease him, or how many obstacles get in his way.
