On the one hand, the world seems obviously to exist because everything that I catch sight every moment of that enormous paradox which is the substance of Abraham's life, every moment I am repelled. Phenomenology thus involves the two questions of 1 where and how the thing appears and 2 how it is reflected in the language that articulates it.

HowcanonethinkandnameaninconceivableandineffableGod? In order to make this transition, art is far rather to be employed to relieve the mind overburdened with emotions. When a woman has scholarly inclinations there is usually something wrong with her sexuality.

DyingbeingnotiswhatIalways"can"do"butnever"do"doas"I.Outofthe"None second, and more decisive, one is the interpreter's need to have a sense of the inner power of materials in order to provide a credible interpretation of them; and scholarship in the world's religious traditions is still not at a stage to make it possible to become intimately familiar with more than one body of such materials.
