Original Title. More About Eva Ibbotson.

Lucy is a very large eye that she likes to eat, a lot, and occasionally she sleepwalks.

It is a journey well worth taking, perfect for boys and girls in the 3rd and 4th grades. Boys and girls alike will love its oddball humour, and while the book does convey a clear message about respecting those who are not the same as us, it is never preachy or heavy-handed.

However, it contains all the trademark qualities that made Eva's subsequent books so successful.
