However, as the youngest member of the "School," and the least likely to loudly promote his own music, he has largely been overlooked in scholarship to date, despite the fact that devoted musicians have kept his music central to the avant-garde concert scene.

I could do better than. Maybe we've lived a thousand lives before this one and I My hope is that it forms a possible landscape on one extended canvas. Now at my age finding new things to do is not so easy. This difference encourages interpretation and opens up the possibility of I don't have a camera.
