From the acclaimed, best-selling author Adam Hochschild, a sweet and funny history of the Spanish Civil War. For three crucial years in the 1930s, the Spanish Civil War dominated headlines in America. Published March 29th by Mariner Books; Reprint edition. Reader Q&A. This is a fascinating read concerning a part of history I knew very little about.

Hope this information helps with your future flight bookings. This had been revised by Bishop Bancroft after reading and encompassed both the theoretical and practical roles Americans and Canadians and George Orwell played in the war. The only exceptions seem to be Virginia Cowles, a true hero of this book for me and George Orwell, then simply Eric Blair, who, although not technically a journalist, nevertheless was not afraid to write what he really saw, and to amend his views when confronted with revealed facts.
