Authorized Seller. Down the centuries, literature has always been a two-way dialogue between past and present – the former living on in the latter; the latter casting new light upon the. Pierre Fresnault-Deruelle—who, within the French universities, was, for a long time, alone in his interest—distinguishes four successive layers in the critical discourse: the archeological age of the s, where nostalgic authors exhumed readings from their childhoods Lacassin the sociohistorical and philosophic age of the s, where the critics established the texts in their variants, reconstituted the relationships. Cary,S. See our User Agreement and Privacy Policy. It remained to designate the daily strips. From this little miniature like universe, the scenarios, probs and settings in the comic books makes me want to explore the moon and Tibet, sail on a pirate ship and hanging out with an old Peruvian mummy.
